

Managing Difficult People: Working with Personality Disorders in the Workplace

● Details

Date	: 24 May 2017 (Wednesday)
Time	: 9:30a.m. – 5:30p.m.
Venue	: Room 1114, Scout Centre, Scout Path, Austin Road, Jordan, Kowloon.
Trainer	: Dr. Philip TSUI, L.C.S.W., Psy. D.
Language	: English supplemented with Cantonese
Target	: Helping Professionals
Certificate	: A "Certificate of Attendance" will be presented in the workshop
Course Fee	: HK$1,080 (Regular Enrollment for 1 person) HK$980 (Early Bird on or before 10 May) HK$880 (Group of 3 or above per person)
Enquire	: 2528 4656 / Ms. Leung & Mr. Or

● Contents of Workshop

- Brief outline of the clinical and behavioral profiles of 4 types of personality disorder (Narcissistic, Borderline, Paranoid and Anti-Social Personality Disorder)
- How to manage the maladaptive interpersonal, destructive and self-destructive behaviors
- Understanding of the distinction between mood disorders and personality disorders
- How mood disorders impact on the performance and interpersonal relationships of an employee

● About Dr. Philip Tsui

- An approved provider of continuing of the California Board of Behavioral Sciences, NASW California and Washington Chapters.
- An Adjunct Faculty Member of the Department of Behavioral Sciences at City College of San Francisco and California School of Professional Psychology at Alliant International University.
- Over 20 years of experience in supervising psychology trainees, clinical social workers/interns, marriage and family therapists/trainees, as well as managing a full spectrum of mental health programmes and services in the United States.